

"Latin stretches my mind to a different level of learning. It's just brilliant!"
"Latin is really fun. I just wish lessons were longer."
(KS2 pupils)

"Latin has contributed significantly to enriching our curriculum. It is boosting pupils' attainment and increasing their confidence."
(Primary Headteacher)

What did the ROMANS ever do for Norfolk schools?

You are invited to a CELEBRATION OF LATIN IN NORFOLK
at NORWICH CASTLE
on
THURSDAY 14TH NOVEMBER, 6.15 for 6.30p.m.

Canapés and a glass of wine on arrival.

Guest speaker
ROGER LLOYD PACK
(Owen in "The Vicar of Dibley" and Trigger in "Only Fools and Horses")

Several of the county's state schools (primary and secondary) have recently benefited from grants awarded by the charity Classics for All to introduce Latin. Norfolk is now acknowledged as a national case study of best practice.

- ❖ Celebration of the success of the North Walsham Cluster project
- ❖ Welcome to the new clusters, Aylsham and Dereham
- ❖ Short performance by children
- ❖ Exclusive preview of British Museum Roman exhibition coming to Norwich Castle
- ❖ Highlighting successful partnership with a local museum
- ❖ Opportunity for teachers to exchange ideas
- ❖ Possibility of establishing a Norfolk Latin Support group
- ❖ Exhibition and sales of books from the Norfolk Children's Book Centre

*Doors open at 6.15.
No parking possible on the castle mound.
Please inform us in advance of any special access required.*

Please send an email by Friday 8th November to indicate whether or not you can attend (needed for catering purposes) to Jane Maguire: sjmaguire0401@aol.com