Swavesey Village College,

Developing the Potential of all Learners

A day led by Professor Barry Hymer.....

How can Ofsted's heightened expectations for able learners be met?

How can all pupils be challenged and stretched in the everyday classroom?

What are the most effective strategies for realising the abilities of all learners?

Barry will draw upon his extensive research in schools to respond to these and other questions in considering the characteristics of practice and provision that develop the potential of all learners.

*NB fee for this event £125pp
