Are you taking GCSE/GCE exams in your first language?

A briefing for examination officers and teachers about the processes involved in entering students, whose first language is other than English, for GCSE, AS and A Level qualifications in their home language.

This briefing will provide schools with the necessary information about which languages are available for multilingual students to take in 2014. It will help teachers and exams officers to identify relevant students and enter them for appropriate GCSE and GCE exams in home languages. Examples of exam papers and specifications will be available for consideration.

- Become familiar with the range of qualifications available in students' home languages
- Explore best practice in the early identification of students who might achieve qualifications in their home language
- Explore the administrative procedures for entering candidates for home language examinations.

Date and Time: 31.01.14 from 16.00 pm - 17.30 pm

Venue: Norwich Professional Development Centre

Cost: £50 per delegate

Course Ref: EPGV7
