

Centre for Spirituality and Religion in Education

School of Education and Lifelong Learning, UEA

UEA ONE-DAY CONFERENCE FOR TEACHERS OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

REALISING THE POTENTIAL:

SHARING AND DEVELOPING BEST PRACTICE IN RE ACROSS EAST ANGLIA

24TH APRIL 2014 : 10.00 – 16.00

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: ALAN BRINE HMI

Photo: Chris Dixon.

Alan Brine HMI will give Ofsted's headline messages from the Ofsted long report on RE: Realising the potential. The day will include seminars and workshops responding to this report, on themes such as effective networking, practical support teachers and enquiry based learning. This one-day conference will be held at UEA and is aimed at all teachers involved in RE in Primary, special and Secondary settings in the East Anglian Region.

This event is supported by the Keswick Hall Trust.

Timetable for the Day (Subject to change)

- 10.00 Keynote Talk: Alan Brine HMI
- 11.30 Workshops and Seminars (Titles listed below)
- 12.15 Workshops and Seminars (Titles listed below)
- 13.45 Workshops and Seminars (Titles listed below)
- 14.30 Plenary and discussion group sessions
REALISING THE POTENTIAL OF RE IN THE EASTERN REGION
Creating action plans for the future of local and regional networking.

Workshops and Seminars: How the region is responding to the Ofsted Report

These will be grouped into three sessions of 3 workshops. See programme for details.

Delegates choose one workshop in each session and sign up for these on arrival.

- Developing an effective local network
Ryan Freeman: Head teacher, Homefield C of E Primary & Leader, East Coast RE Network group
- Using the RE Quality Mark to support self-evaluation and effective practice in schools
Cassandra Williams, Headteacher, and Danielle Banham: Thurton C of E Primary School
- Using social media and Teachmeets to develop networks and support teachers
Dawn Cox: Head of RE, Felixstowe Academy
- Best practice enquiry based learning
Corinne Riddell Croft: UEA lecturer & RE Adviser to Norfolk SACRE
- Inspiring leadership for Primary RE
Alan Brine: HMI
- Using RE: ONLINE to support excellent RE in schools
Dave Francis: Lead Consultant for Culham St Gabriel's
- How are the local Diocese supporting all schools?
Kathryn Wright: RE Adviser to Diocese of Norwich
- Using the RE Quality Mark to support action research school improvement
Steph Crossley: St Albans RC High School, Ipswich & Lead for Eastern Region RE Quality Mark Project
- What your SACRE can do for you!
Robert Ogden: Chair of the Norfolk SACRE

FEE: £35.00 (includes lunch, refreshments and parking)

To book a place please contact Dawn Corby: d.corby@uea.ac.uk

The programme is available from the CSRE website: www.uea.ac.uk/education/centre-for-spirituality-and-religion-in-education