

Promoting spiritual, moral, social and cultural development: a whole-school approach

Evidence of SMSC is gathered throughout an Ofsted inspection – what will this say about your school?

The promotion and development of spiritual, moral, social and cultural development in school is the responsibility of everyone. Through this course, delegates will gain confidence in unpicking what is really meant by SMSC development and why this impacts so importantly on the overall effectiveness of a school. There will be a focus on looking at Ofsted requirements and delegates will have an opportunity to begin to audit what already impacts on SMSC in their own school or setting, and to consider the evidence for this. Further ways of promoting and developing SMSC will also be explored.

- Fully understand what is meant by spiritual, moral, social and cultural development
- Know Ofsted requirements in regard to SMSC
- Identify the impact of what you already do in school, and in particular your curriculum, on the development of SMSC
- Look at ways to further promote and develop SMSC.
