EYFS Conference 2014

Ensuring Effective Pedagogy in a Changing Environment

A practical, inspiring and empowering conference designed to develop outstanding practice in the revised EYFS through latest research and practical workshops.

Keynote Speaker and workshop leader: Jan Dubiel

Jan has worked across the EYFS and key stage 1 phases as a teacher, team leader, consultant and senior advisor. Prior to joining Early Excellence, he was Programme Leader for the EYFS and EYFS Profile at the QCDA and had national responsibility for the profile's implementation and moderation.

Delegates will hear from Jan about the latest research and practice to develop and enhance outstanding EYFS provision, and practical workshops will enable delegates to return to schools/settings fully equipped to deliver the highest quality provision for children in the EYFS. Delegates will benefit from: best-practice examples for delivering the revised EYFS; world-class approaches proven to enhance children's development and practical sessions that put outstanding practice at the heart of teaching.

This conference is a fantastic opportunity to hear the latest developments and reflect on effective pedagogical approaches that should underpin all EYFS provision. Jan is an engaging and very highly regarded national and international speaker and author, whose approach to EYFS provision and practice stems from a wealth of research.

Date and Time:	3rd July 2014 from 9.30 am - 4.00 pm
Venue:	Green Britain Centre, Swaffham
Cost:	£100 per delegate
Course Ref:	EYCF6

The conference is suitable for headteachers, SLTs, and teachers of single EYFS and mixed-age EYFS classes and HLTAs.

This is a prestigious event and attendance is anticipated to be high so early booking is recommended. Delegate places for those on the waiting list will be confirmed two weeks prior to the event.
