Discovery Café

An exciting opportunity, as part of the Café Programme, to improve partnership working with families in Reception classes in order to develop children's excitement and disposition for learning through discovery.

This training will support practitioners in Reception classes to develop the aspirations of both children and adults through a relaxed, informal and supportive café environment. The emphasis will be on enhancing learning opportunities through discovery.

- Support practitioners in developing and deepening families' understanding in order to support key aspects of effective pedagogy and practice and so enhance children's thirst for learning at home
- Develop effective Discovery Cafés in Reception classes that make families feel secure and supported in helping their children learn.
