

Free Media Handling seminar

Places are still available for 11 July for schools signed up for support from Norfolk county Council's Communications Team

There are still some places available in the morning and afternoon sessions of the schools media handling seminar, which is being held at Hethersett Park Farm Hotel on Friday 11 July 2014.

It's free to schools signed up for support from Norfolk County Council's Communications team. If you would like a place, email:

John Birchall, Senior Media and Public Affairs Officer

Sessions, led by media training guru Chris Kelly, start at 9am and 2pm and last for about three and a half hours.