

Addressing Homophobia

Course Aims:

- Identify homophobic bullying
- Clarify school responsibilities to address homophobia
- Know how to develop a policy that meets Ofsted criteria for addressing homophobia
- Explore a range of cross-curricular teaching activities and resources
- Consider how to support LGBT children and their families

This course is suitable for SLT, PSHE leads, teachers, pastoral workers and governors, and is appropriate to be attended by primary and secondary schools. Agencies who support schools are also welcome.

“Thank you for the renewed enthusiasm and confidence I now have to tackle homophobia in my school. I have lots of ‘scripts’, ideas and resources to use straight away”.
