Effective EAL resources – what's out there? Primary

Minority Attainment & Achievement Services
(MAAS)

Delegates will explore a range of effective EAL resources for use in primary schools. Their application and usefulness will be demonstrated and delegates will have the opportunity to see how they can improve attainment. Each delegate will also be entitled to a follow-up visit or school training by a specialist EAL Adviser as part of the cost of the course to ensure impact, effective staff development and school improvement.

Schools may send up to two delegates to the session.

The programme includes:

- Review of effective EAL resources which are available
- Effective use of the Pupil Premium/EAL funding
- Opportunity to try out EAL resources
- Review EAL resources which can be used to assist in the admission process.

Date and Time: 04.11.14 from 9.00 am - 12 noon
