

Relationships Education Workshop

9:30-12:30

17 NOVEMBER 2014

DEREHAM TOWN FOOTBALL CLUB
NORWICH ROAD, NR20 3PX

“This is an excellent opportunity to share good practice and learning and enhance the way we all work together to improve the experiences of children and young people.” - Thomasin Keeble, Public Health, Norfolk County Council.

By attending this workshop you will:

- ♦ Explore the spectrum of vulnerabilities faced by children and young people living in Norfolk and how this impacts upon their relationships education needs
- ♦ Map the equality of service provision across the county
- ♦ Know how to create an inclusive, safe and democratic learning space that promotes effective relationships education
- ♦ Network, practice share and establish ways of working collaboratively to ensure an equitable delivery of services

This workshop is suitable for any agency working towards the promotion of healthy relationships in Norfolk schools. Representation from schools is also welcome.

To book a place please email:
josiewells@nhs.net

Refreshments and lunch will be provided

Norfolk County Council