

Do you work with a disadvantaged child?

CHICKS charity provides free, 5-day respite breaks for disadvantaged children from across the UK at two retreats in Devon and Cornwall.

If you work with a child aged 8 to 15 years old, who has not had any chance for a break away this year from their challenging circumstances, you can refer them for a CHICKS break to experience a range of activities to boost confidence, social skills and create positive memories for their future.
