Best practice, best behaviours: a tool kit of key skills for Midday Supervisory Assistants

Top up your toolkit of effective and positive management skills.

MSAs are the front line staff at lunchtimes and as such need to feel confident and empowered to best ensure positive behaviours from pupils along with optimum 'ready for learning' attitudes for afternoons back in the classroom.

With Ofsted stating they will be 'seeking the views of pupils and staff 'at lunchtime and considering 'how lunch time and the dining space contribute to good behaviour and the culture of the school', now is the time to top up MSAs' behaviour toolkits with the skills and strategies to enable best practice to embed and be observed.
