

A one day national conference – Book now! Limited spaces

"Embedding British Values"

Preparing young people for life in modern Britain

Confirmed seminars and workshops include:

- ➔ Delivering British values in the classroom
A practical, school-based case study
- ➔ The Tolerance Trap – Britishness for inclusion not division
Karin Hutchinson, Lead Teaching & Learning Adviser for Anti-Bullying, Herts for Learning Ltd
- ➔ PREVENT – developing an understanding of how individuals become radicalised
Peter Martin, PREVENT Regional Further and Higher Education Coordinator for the East of England
- ➔ Building pupils' sense of identity of what it means to be British, through history and geography
Christine Lloyd-Staples, Humanities Consultant
- ➔ Preparing School Leaders for embedding British values from an inspection perspective
Andy Clark, School Improvement Professional and trained Ofsted Inspector

Wednesday 3rd December 2014 9.45am to 3.45pm

Wyboston Lakes, Wyboston, Bedfordshire, MK44 3AL

This national conference, for school leaders across all phases, is in response to the recent changes to the Ofsted framework which state that 'Inspectors will pay even greater attention to a school's curriculum to ensure that it is appropriately broad and balanced to help prepare young people for life in modern Britain'.

For the first time schools are to be judged on their ability to teach pupils about British values and will be asked to demonstrate how their school embeds these values throughout the curriculum. These changes are as a direct result of recent world and national events such as the Birmingham 'Trojan Horse' governance affair and the radicalisation of young British people.

The Department for Education has welcomed this event which supports the focus from the Secretary of State to enforce a clear and rigorous expectation on all schools to actively promote the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs. This national conference has been designed to support school leaders in ensuring that these issues are appropriately dealt with in schools, in a way that unites rather than divides parents and pupils.

Our closing keynote speaker Saira Khan, star of the Apprentice, BBC TV presenter and business woman will offer insight into her life as a British Asian Muslim woman, and use her life experience to demonstrate how, because of British values, she has been able to recognise and realise her potential.

Our keynote speaker is Sir Trevor McDonald OBE who, with his passion for education and current affairs, will bring a fresh perspective on the opportunities that this new area of focus brings to schools.

The day also includes a range of seminars including preparing school leaders for EBV in Ofsted, curriculum management / delivery and practical case studies.

Herts for Learning National Conference Programme

A one day national conference

By attending this national conference you will have the opportunity to:

- Reflect upon the importance of this agenda and the opportunities/challenges it presents to schools
- Develop an understanding of what 'British Values' are
- Understand the key role schools have in preparing young people for life in modern Britain
- Establish how these issues can be tackled in a way which unites rather than divides school communities
- Develop an understanding of how these can be delivered in a school curriculum
- Review how these issues should be represented to governors, Ofsted and the wider school community

How to book

To book your place on this national conference please visit www.thegrid.org.uk/schoolworkforce

Conference code: 14CON/010A
Price: £250.00 plus VAT per person

Contact us

For further information please contact Danielle Wallington, Events Coordinator

email:
danielle.wallington@hertsforlearning.co.uk or telephone: 01438 844535

The venue

Wyboston Lakes is an award winning conference venue, located less than 1 hour from London, midway between Cambridge and Milton Keynes. With excellent road links to both the A1 and M1, and only a 48 minute train journey from London King's Cross into St. Neots train station, Wyboston Lakes is the perfect location for our national conference:

Wyboston Lakes
Great North Road
Wyboston
Bedfordshire
MK44 3AL

Tel: 0333 7007 666
www.wybostonlakes.co.uk

Forthcoming National Conferences

The Power in Poetry: Language as Play
3rd February 2015
Theobalds Park Hotel, Waltham Cross

with keynote speakers Carol Ann Duffy, Poet Laureate and Roger McGough, CBE for services to poetry

Raising the Achievement of White Working Class Children
Summer 2015

Herts for Learning Ltd
01438 845111
www.hertsforlearning.co.uk

