Supporting EAL Pupils – a specialist course for Teaching Assistants (Primary and Reception)

This 10 session course will cover working throughout the primary phase including YR and will focus on developing a toolkit of practical classroom-based strategies which can support the achievement of pupils with English as an Additional Language.

Delegates will need to complete tasks between training sessions, produce a portfolio of work and undertake a final assignment in order to be accredited with the County Award in Supporting EAL.

To encourage reflective practice each TA can book a teacher onto 2 sessions (subject to numbers).
