

EXCITING UPDATES

KS2- Cracking the Code: A Detective-themed Conference

For all school staff to inspire Reading for Pleasure across the KS2 curriculum

Please see below for exciting details of the workshops we will be offering at our Conference. Places are limited so get in touch with us to book your place!

- ◆ Mystery of Prehistory: Lisa Hewitt, Learning Officer, Norfolk Museum Service
Hands-on session to support Prehistory units of new NC
- ◆ Getting to grips with Forensic Science: Jacqui Thompson, Pulse CSI
Practical scientific enquiry used in a crime scene investigation
- ◆ The Happiness Advantage: Andrew Cope, author of Spy Dogs series and Art of Being Brilliant
Sharing top tips on the Science of Happiness and how to enthuse your pupils
- ◆ Cracking the Code and Unlocking Potential! H L Dennis, author of the Secret Breakers series
Code-cracking challenges across the KS2 curriculum
- ◆ DO judge a book by its cover! Kate Pankhurst, author/illustrator of Mariella Mystery series
Interactive session exploring book jacket design and children's reading choices

There will be a special session with Sally Gardner at the end of the day in which she will be interviewed and will read extracts from her books. Sally won the Carnegie Medal in 2013 for her book 'Maggot Moon' and also writes the Operation Bunny series for KS2.

Date: Monday 2nd March 2015

Venue: Green Britain Centre, Swaffham

Time: 9am - 3.30pm

Cost: 2 SLS Tokens - lunch and other refreshments provided

For more information and to reserve a place, please contact our office on:
01603 222265 or by emailing us at school.library.service@norfolk.gov.uk

If your school is part of the Norfolk To Good and Great (N2GG) initiative, get in touch as you may have tokens you can use!