

Encountering Beliefs: Developing religious literacy in our schools

Keynote speaker: Stephen Pett

30th April
2015
10.00 - 16.00

The day will include seminars and workshops led by members of faith communities and advisors, as well as updates on the new Ofsted framework, and the RE for Real project led by Goldsmiths University.

The cost of the event is £45, this includes car parking and a light lunch.

Stephen provides training and consultancy internationally and supports the work of RE in school-focused work. He writes for and edits RE Today Services' RE curriculum series, Questions in RE, and contributes to a range of other publications.

He works with schools in all aspects of teaching and learning, including creative task setting, active learning in A-level RS, developing ICT, particularly through video conferencing and innovative use of tablet PCs, and promoting spiritual development.

Timetable for the Day (subject to change)

10.00	Welcome and coffee
10.15	Keynote speaker: Stephen Pett
11.15	Break
11.45	Workshop 1
12.30	Workshop 2
1.15	Lunch
2.00	Workshop 3
2.45	Tea & cake
3.00	Plenary and updates: Kathryn Wright - RE Advisor to Diocese of Norwich

Workshops and Seminars

There will be 3 workshop sessions during the day.

Delegates choose ONE workshop in each session and sign up for these on arrival.

- Encountering Christianity: Effective teaching and learning in secondary RE.
Stephen Pett: Keynote Speaker
- Encountering Christianity: Effective teaching and learning in primary RE.
Stephen Pett: Keynote Speaker
- Ofsted: Implications of the new framework for RE in schools.
Mary Myatt: Leading Ofsted Inspector and School and RE Consultant
- Encountering The Bahá'í faith.
Iain MacDonald and Natasha Wilkinson: Norwich Faith Representatives
- Encountering Islam.
Shabriam Khan: The Muslim Council
- Encountering Judaism.
Deborah Carpenter: Norwich Faith Representative
- RE for Real: What should we teach in R.E?
Martha Shaw: Goldsmiths University
- Engaging children and young people with living faiths and beliefs.
Sue Ward: Cambridgeshire RE Advisor