

Training courses from Norfolk School Library Service Supporting literacy and learning for your school

Chatterbooks Training Day

Chatterbooks is the UK's largest network of children's reading groups and is Children's University accredited. This day course will support schools and libraries to set up Chatterbooks Reading Groups, a flexible model that can be adapted for children from 4 up to 12 years. For Teachers, TAs, Librarians and Volunteers.

Course Date: 2nd July 2015

Time: 10.30 am-4.00 pm

Venue: Norwich City Football Club
Study Centre, Carrow Rd, Norwich,
NR1 1JE

Parking available on site.

Cost: 2 SLS Tokens

Course leader: Lynne Taylor,
Chatterbooks Programme Manager

'Reading for pleasure is more important to children's successes than education or social class. Chatterbooks reading clubs help children build a lifelong reading habit.'

Previous participant's comment: 'Very worthwhile and thought-provoking'

Closing date: 19th June 2015

Course Objectives

Participants will:

- gain a good knowledge of the Chatterbooks programme and how libraries and schools can use it to inspire children's reading for pleasure and support their targeted work with young readers
- understand the support available from the Chatterbooks network, resources and materials
- be able to shape their own local plans for using Chatterbooks, and measuring its impact
- share and learn a range of tips and ideas for session planning and management, and for session activities
- explore ways to involve children with reading difficulties/dyslexia

Supporting the new National Curriculum:

'Pupils should be...encouraged to read for pleasure. Schools should do everything to promote wider reading.' National Curriculum Framework document, 2013, English.
