Supporting transitions for Gypsy Roma Traveller Pupils (3 – 19 years)

More Not Different, Supporting your School or Setting with effective transitions for GRT pupils.

GRT Pupils and their families can find transitions very difficult, particularly at the secondary phase. This is a course designed to offer inclusion strategies for schools to support effective transitions for these children.

Focus of the course will be:

- Raising cultural awareness outlining implications of transitions for GRT pupils and their families
- Identifying points of transition that can be particularly difficult for GRT pupils
- Looking at ways of using a flexible and culturally appropriate approach for this vulnerable group.
