

FREE CREATIVE WRITING WORKSHOP

With

TIM BOWLER

On : Friday 2nd October

From : 9.30 am to 12 noon

At : OPEN Venue, Bank Plain, Norwich

Young Norfolk Arts is delighted that well-known author, Tim Bowler is visiting Norwich in October and will be offering a Free talk and Creative Writing Workshop to Norfolk pupils. The event is suitable for years 7 and 8.

Places are strictly limited to a maximum of one class per school and will be offered on a first come first served basis.

To register your interest please contact : enquiries@ynaf.org.uk by 5pm on Friday 18th September, ensuring you clearly state name of school, number of children that you wish to bring, number of accompanying staff and name and contact details including email and phone number of the member of staff co-ordinating the trip. You will be informed on Monday 21st September if you have been successful and apologise in advance that there may not be capacity for everyone to have a place.

Please note that all pupils will need to be supervised by staff from their own School. Refreshments may be available to buy at the venue but schools are advised to ensure that their pupils are equipped with suitable drinks and snacks if appropriate and to ensure that each pupil has something to write with.
