Raising aspirations - Changing attitudes

Teaching professionals need to be equipped with the knowledge and skills to educate and support looked after children effectively, as they play a vital role in improving their educational results and overall academic achievement.

This is a half-day course to support Designated Teachers for LAC in their statutory role and improve educational outcomes for Children in Care on the school roll.

The content will include:

- your role and responsibilities as Designated Teacher
- improving attainment and life chances of Looked After Children
- up-to-date information about the National and local context and utilisation of Pupil Premium
- overcoming barriers to achievement and the educational disadvantages faced by looked after children
- the emotional impact of being looked after and how this can affect children's learning and wider school experience
- practical strategies and examples of what works
