Dr Bill Rogers is a world-renowned authority on behaviour management and this is a rare & exciting opportunity to hear him speak in Norfolk.

He is an inspirational speaker who uses humour and practical anecdotes to illustrate his core strategies. He offers practical solutions to managing difficult behaviour at classroom and whole school levels.

This programme is suitable for all educational staff from all school phases.

Key preferred practices

- A consistent, planned approach within agreed Behaviour Policy guidelines.
- Behaviour management and disciplines strategies for the challenging child
- Tools to effect positive changes

Walk away from the day with:

- Well-established framework
- Successful negotiation practices
- Powerful pupil options
- Measurements for on-going behaviour
- Individual behaviour support plans
- 'Master Teacher' techniques and strategies
- Techniques for managing bullying; aggression & rudeness

Bill Roger's events are always sold out & anyone who has attended once tries to go again. He presents with vivid authenticity.... and he never loses the riveted attention of his audience!
Professor Tim Brighouse
Educational Consultant

Dr Bill Rogers taught for many years before becoming an education consultant and author, he lectures widely on behaviour management, discipline, effective teaching, stress management and teacher welfare.

He works in every area of education ; Early Years, Primary, Secondary and Further Education. Over the past twenty-five years he has worked with teachers, schools and universities across Australia, New Zealand, Europe and the UK.

Bill's work is acclaimed for its commitment to a skills based approach to discipline and behaviour management. Its emphasis is on colleague support across the school, resulting in the development, and maintenance of positive behaviours. He focuses on rights, responsibility and rules.
