

Effective Primary EAL Resources - what's out there?

Find out what EAL resources are available to support EAL learners.

Delegates will be taken through applications and have hands on opportunity to investigate and experience their potential for teaching and learning.

Each delegate will also be offered an EAL follow up visit or school training by an EAL Adviser as part of the cost of the course to ensure impact and effective staff development.

- Find out what EAL resources are available to support learners with vocabulary development, speaking, comprehension and literacy skills
- Effective use of Pupil Premium EAL funding
- Have an opportunity to try out EAL resources, such as Ipad/ tablet Apps, useful websites, software, grammar support, EAL simplified readers, bi-lingual/subject specific/visual dictionaries, Talking Pens, etc.
- Look at EAL resources which can be used to assist in the admission/induction process, as well as engage and communicate with parents.

Schools may send up to two delegates to the session for the price of one.
