

Sex talk

Improving your confidence to deliver SRE in secondary schools

Do you have the responsibility to deliver Sex and relationships education in education settings?

Do you feel you need to improve your knowledge and confidence to deliver the subject?

Then this free 1 day course is for you!

By the end of this course participants should:

- Know how to create a safe and democratic learning environment, including skills and strategies to build confidence in managing your classroom environment for SRE
- Understand the role effective SRE has in fulfilling statutory school duties
- Consider interactive assessment activities to evaluate teaching and learning of SRE
- Demonstrate the application and use of both male and female condoms effectively
- Signpost clients, patients, customers, pupils, peers or students to appropriate testing, treatment and support services
- Discuss the pros and cons of the different types of contraception available
- Take away exercises to help explore communication and consent in sex and relationships

This course is suitable for SLT, PSHE leads, teachers, pastoral workers and is appropriate to be attended by any agencies who support Sex Education in Secondary Schools.
