

Primary English Toolkit: Planning a teaching sequence for writing

Develop a clear understanding of the steps involved in creating exciting and engaging units of work in English.

Course Outline

In order to be successful and motivated writers children have to draw on a wide range of skills and experiences. This course will enable you to develop this. The way we structure the learning behind and build up to a written outcome is crucial. A well developed teaching sequence for writing could be the key to unlocking the potential writers in your school.

By the end of the course participants will:-

- have had the opportunity to plan English units from the curriculum, using quality texts as a starting point, which spark enthusiasm for writing
- develop the skills and strategies to sequence lessons effectively
- be able to plan objective and outcome led English Sessions.
