Libraries and Their Impact on School Improvement

FREE Twilight INSET course for Primary school governors

This session looks at good practice in schools in Norfolk and will give a range of ideas for governors when looking at making the most of their school library. Participants will get hands on experience of books and explore what makes a good school library in the stimulating environment of the Education Library Service base.

Date: Tuesday 15th November 2016

Venue: Education Library Service
Training Room, County Hall.

Time: 4.45 to 6.45pm

Course leader: Harriet Cox ELS Librarian

There is a strong research evidence base for the importance of reading for pleasure, as well as education, in improving literacy and life chances for children and young people- which a good school library supports

By the end of the session governors will be able to:

- Consider the importance of a school library in relation to literacy and learning
- Consider what makes a good primary school library
- Be familiar with the services offered by Education Library Service

Using eBooks to promote reading for pleasure

Education Library Service working in partnership with STEM at the Kinesis Centre, Norwich

A half day course for teachers, literacy leaders and School Librarians

Ensure sure your library continues to support literacy and promote reading for pleasure, complementing and incorporating the use of eBooks in your school.

Includes FREE access to Norfolk ELS eBook platform for a whole term!

Course Date: Wednesday 16th November

Time: 9am- 12pm

Venue: The Kinesis Centre, Carrow Rd, NR1 1JE
Nb. There is parking available for delegates at the venue.

Cost: 1 ELS Token

Course leader: Apryl Markham-Uden, Senior
Library Assistant

- There is a growing body of evidence which illustrates the importance of reading for pleasure for both educational purposes as well as personal development (cited in Clark and Rumbold, 2006).
- Evidence suggests that there is a positive relationship between reading frequency, reading enjoyment and attainment (Clark 2011; Clark and Douglas 2011)
- PISA reports that young people who are extensively engaged in online reading activities are generally found to be more proficient readers (OECD, 2010).

Course closing date: Friday 4th November

Course Objectives:

- You will be better informed on how to use electronic resources to enhance students' reading experiences
- Receive an overview of the Norfolk ELS eBook platform and what it has to offer.
- A toolkit of digital resources & ideas will help to spark interest in even the most reluctant of readers

Supporting the new National Curriculum:

Pupils should be taught to read fluently, understand extended prose (both fiction and non-fiction) and be encouraged to read for pleasure. Schools should do everything to promote wider reading. They should provide library facilities and set ambitious expectations for reading at home NC, KS4
