

Anti-Bullying Week 14th-18th November

Anti-Bullying Week is coordinated by the Anti-Bullying Alliance and this year takes place from the 14th-18th November. Anti-Bullying Week this year is sponsored by SafeToNet and the Ben Cohen Stand Up Foundation, with support from Internet Matters.

The theme is Power for Good and we're encouraging children, parents and teachers to think about how they can use their Power for Good to stop bullying.

There are 3 ways to get involved today:

1. Quick – encourage students to nominate teachers/school staff for the prestigious Anti-Bullying Alliance Power for Good award – closes 30th September.
2. Order your Power for Good wristbands, posters and stickers from the Anti-Bullying Alliance shop – wristbands sell out fast so shop now to avoid disappointment!
3. Take a look at the free school resources including lesson plans, assemblies, letter templates, book lists and top tips and official Anti-Bullying Week film made by students at St Helens Academy.

Anti-Bullying Week is coordinated by the Anti-Bullying Alliance, hosted by leading children's charity the National Children's Bureau (NCB). For more information go to <http://www.anti-bullyingalliance.org.uk/anti-bullying-week/> #antibullyingweek @ABAonline
