

New to English Subject Leadership

Successful schools have strong leaders who drive improvement in their school. What are the skills you need, to be equipped to do this in English?

Course Outline

Leading English effectively is one of the most important elements in securing high quality teaching and learning of the subject. By focusing on the role as a English leader of learning, this course will help you establish and maintain your vision, get the best out of your team and ensure high quality outcomes for young people and staff.

This course will help specifically identify a subject leader's style and demonstrate how to sustain it. It will explore rigorous and effective systems of monitoring and evaluation whilst sharing proven strategies for maintaining long- term progress in your school and department.

Course Outcomes

By the end of the course participants will:-

- be equipped with the knowledge and tools they need to lead English across the primary phase.
- have a range of strategies for immediate use back in the classroom
