

Training courses from Norfolk Education Library Service Supporting literacy and learning for your school

An Invitation to primary NQTs; How the Education Library Service can enrich your teaching career

A half day course for Primary School NQTs to find out how the Education Library Service helps teaching staff and to look at some of our wonderful stock, PLUS select and borrow up to 12 items to help in your teaching for the summer term

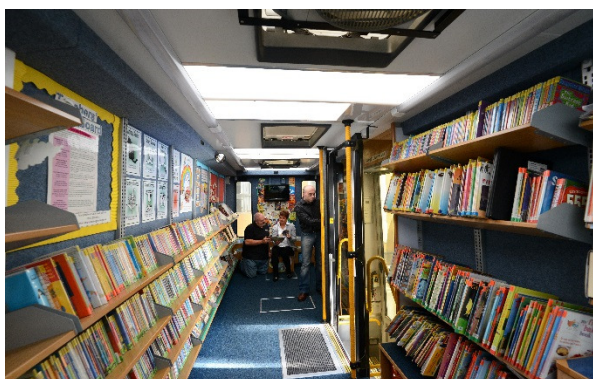

Course Date: Friday 10th March 2017

Time: 9 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Venue: Room 039, County Hall

Cost: 1 ELS token

Course leader: Harriet Cox, team librarian

Course closing date: Friday 3rd March

Please note if you would like to book a place after the closing date please contact ELS as places may still be available

Course Objectives:

- To gain an understanding of the many ways the Education Library Service supports teaching staff to improve standards
- To look in some depth at our resources, both fiction and non-fiction
- To understand that we support literacy and learning, not only in the school library but in classrooms too
- To select and borrow a half project's worth of books for use in school

Supporting the new National Curriculum:

"Pupils should ...have opportunities to listen frequently to stories, poems, non-fiction and other writing...with teachers making use of any library services and expertise to support this"

To book a place on the course please complete a booking form (available on our website) and return to the Education Library Service via email, fax, or post.
