Dylan Wiliam is a world-renowned authority on formative assessment and this is a rare and exciting opportunity to hear him speak in Norfolk.

He is an inspirational speaker who uses draws on his vast knowledge and experience to illustrate his core strategies. He offers practical strategies for formative assessment in the classroom.

During the training Dylan will share:

- Why formative assessment needs to be a continuing priority for every child.
- Strategies and practical techniques for formative assessment (including questioning and feedback)
- Sustaining professional learning with teacher learning communities to support teachers in improving classroom practice.

"Such a wealth of knowledge and experience. I came away buzzing with ideas!"

Dylan Wiliam is the Emeritus Professor of Educational Assessment at Institute of Education, University of London. In a varied career, he has taught in inner-city schools, directed a large-scale testing programme, served a number of roles in university administration, including Dean of a School of Education, and pursued a research programme focused on supporting teachers to develop their use of assessment in support of learning. He is the author of a number of books including: Inside the Black Box, Embedding Formative Assessment and Leadership for Teacher Learning.
