Support for Latin Teaching

With the steady growth of interest in teaching Latin in the county and the increasing evidence of the benefits it can provide especially for Literacy, we are seeking to establish an East of England Hub to support schools (primary and secondary) already teaching Latin or interested in considering it. Free training is available for teachers and existing help and support could be extended through the hub.

If you are teaching Latin or would like to know more about it, please contact Jane Maguire, sjmaguire0401@aol.com.
