

Training courses from Norfolk Education Library Service Supporting Literacy and Learning in your school

Blogging in the Classroom

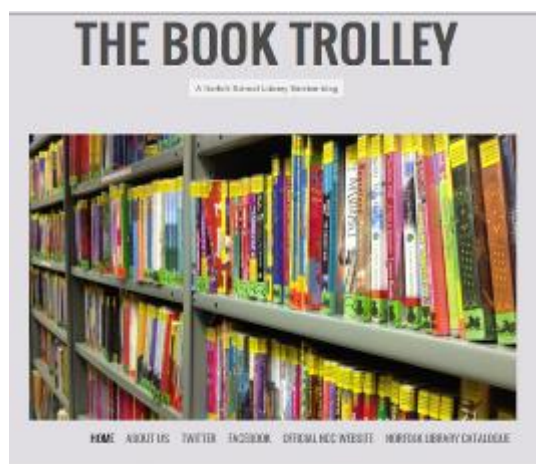

A half-day course for Literacy Co-ordinators and Key Stage 2/3/4 Teachers looking at how to create and maximise the use of a Reading Blog and how to utilise Social Media in the classroom

Date: Friday 6th October 2017
9 am to 12 noon (Arrival from 8.45am)

Venue: Nelson Training Room County Hall

Cost: 1 ELS token

Course leaders:
Apyrl Markham-Uden (ELS)

The course will include:

- Advice on how to set up a Blog
- Practical suggestions on how to use a Blog to support a Reading Group
- Advice on how to utilise other social media such as Twitter

The course will support the requirements of the new National Curriculum:

English: 'maintain positive attitudes to reading and understanding of what (children) read'

Computing: (Pupils should be) 'able to use, and express themselves and develop their ideas through, information and communication technology'

This course will be equally valuable for those who have a familiarity with Blogging and Social Media as for those who are new to the format.

To book a place on the course please complete a booking form and return to the Education Library Service via email, fax, or post.
Or book through the SLA online website www.s4s.norfolk.gov.uk
