

Primary Languages Assessment and Recording

Course Outline

Assessment and recording for Primary Languages need not be a daunting or onerous task. With AfL as a starting point, this course will focus on motivating approaches to language learning that will enhance your pupils' performance. A range of strategies and resources for recording progress will also be provided for delegates.

By the end of the course participants will:-

- be provided with examples of assessment in Primary Languages that actively involve pupils in their own learning and progression
- receive guidance on approaches to differentiation in language learning
- be provided with practical examples of effective feedback and marking practice be provided with examples of assessment in Primary Languages that actively involve pupils in their own learning and progression
