

Developing Middle Leadership in Secondary Schools'

To succeed, schools need leaders who bring new perspectives, new thinking and new ideas – and who have the skills and knowledge to manage in an uncertain world.

The Developing Middle Leadership programme is led by a current senior leader with a proven track record of success at this level of leadership and is suitable for subject leaders, phase leaders and key stage leaders

The programme not only supports the development of a range of leadership and management skills needed by middle leaders, but also provides individualised support as it will include a half day visit from the course leader to enable the middle leader to work on a pre agreed area that requires development:-

This could include the following:-

- Creating an effective team
- Understanding the school development planning process
- Identifying and prioritising areas for change
- Leading change
- Evaluating impact
- Difficult conversations
- Running successful meetings
- Creating a clear vision within your team
- Tackle weakness and manage conflict effectively
- Supporting the school's ability to make progress
- Recognising areas to be even more effective and planning your CPD
- Maximising performance
