

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Sarah Outen - Ocean rower and adventurer

Sarah Outen is an adventurer, author and speaker, passionate about sharing the good energy and lessons of her journeys and encouraging people to pursue their goals and spend more time outside.

Her latest book 'Dare to Do' will be available at the event.

Sarah has spoken at Aspire to Headship in the past and skilfully links her experiences with the challenges of leading a school.

ASPIRE TO HEADSHIP

A conference for aspiring primary, secondary and special school leaders

Free to attend with a £200 bursary towards travel and supply costs for delegates from small schools (100 pupils or fewer)

Open to all schools in Cambridgeshire, Norfolk, Peterborough, and Suffolk

Date: 8th Feb 2018 – 9:30am to 4:15pm

Venue: The Rowley Mile Conference Centre,
Newmarket, CB8 0TF

Agenda:

09.00	Refreshments
09:30	Welcome:
09.35	Rob Loe – Relational Schools – the importance of fostering positive relationships between key stakeholders in schools
10.20	Applying to my first headship and progress since – Glenn Russell, Stalham Academy
11.00	Coffee
11:15	Leading a school, primary or secondary – Al Mistrano, Bar Hill Primary School
12.00	Lunch
12.45	Work-life balance Beverly Jones, former Headteacher; School and Academy Leadership Consultant.
1.45	Q&A with an existing head, please choose 2 of the following options when applying. The online application will ask you for questions you'd like to ask these heads please have a think about these before applying: 1) Jackie Parris – leading a TSA and providing School to School Support 2) Helena Marsh – developing your vision as a head 3) Victoria de Naeyer – working with governors, the difference between leading a LA or MAT school 4) Rebecca Newman – being head of small schools, leading a church school and working within a diocese MAT 5) Nick Froy – being head of a trust school 6) Andy Prestoe – Leading a brand new school
3.00	Sarah Outen – Adventurer
4.15	Final thoughts and close

Places will be limited and secured on a first come, first served basis – booking opens on 20th Nov at 12:30pm

To book your place, please visit: <http://aspiretoheadship2018.eventbrite.co.uk/>

If you encounter problems contact: Mark Lambell at mark.lambell@sdsa.net or 0116 2995945