

Inspiring Writing

Rediscover your enthusiasm for teaching writing with this practical session.

Course Outline

We all know that there's more to great writing than grammar alone. Children need to be equipped with irresistible contexts in which to apply taught skills.

Through this course, delegates will develop a repertoire of transferable skills and explore a range of resources which will support their planning and teaching of writing across the curriculum..

By the end of the course participants will:-

- be equipped with practical strategies to inspire, scaffold and enhance children's writing.
- Understand how to use talk, drama, outdoor learning, quality texts and using technology to inspire, scaffold and enhance children's writing in your classroom.
