

Training courses from Norfolk Education Library Service
Supporting literacy and learning for your school

Introduction to the Library Volunteer Training Service
open to all primary school Senior Management staff

Course Date: 4th July 2018

Time: 4.15 pm (twilight session)

Venue: ELS base, Room 039 County Hall

Cost: FREE

Course leader: Caroline Barker (ELS Manager); Harriet Cox (team librarian)

Course Objectives:

To demonstrate how well-trained volunteers can help support and develop your vision of a Reading School

To set out how ELS will train and support volunteer staff in your school library

To indicate how schools will need to respond with support for their volunteers

Ofsted says:

“In the most effective primary and secondary schools visited, libraries and well trained specialist librarians had a positive impact on teaching and learning.”

From Good School Libraries: making a difference to learning Ofsted Report 2006

The DfE describes:

‘collaborative planning between teaching staff and the librarian as one of the 10 steps to a successful school library’ in 2008, from School Libraries, National Literacy Trust 2017
