

Virtual School for Children in Care

Raising aspirations - Changing attitudes

Keeping Education on the agenda for Looked after Children and Young People – A conference for Designated Teachers for looked after children, Social Workers and Independent Reviewing Officers

A one day event for Designated Teachers for looked after children, Social Workers and Independent Reviewing Officers exploring effective approaches to improve the education outcomes of looked after children and young people, with two key strands – attachment and also the new regulations/duties to support learners in schools.

Our keynote speaker is Sarah Naish, expert in attachment and therapeutic parenting.

Tracy Fielding, HMI at OFSTED, with a lead for Looked After Children, will speak about the new regulations and duties.

Stef Rice, foster carer, will talk about the importance of developing partnerships with foster carers and Personal Education Plans (PEPs).

There will be a range of workshops and a marketplace available throughout the day.
