

Mobilising, Motivating and Developing a Team

Improve morale and teamwork to meet outcomes.

Understand common motivators and demotivators in the workplace and how to create and maintain a high performing team that works capably, harmoniously and successfully achieves objectives.

Course Outline

One of the key tasks for any manager is to encourage their team to work effectively and harmoniously. This is seldom easy because the dynamics can fluctuate in line with changing events and personnel.

This session helps managers to gel a range of diverse personalities, mindsets, skills and knowledge in to a winning team that consistently meets its objectives.

By the end of this session delegates will be able to:

- Mobilise a new or existing team by fact-finding, building rapport and setting standards of behaviour and conduct
- Contribute to a working environment where the team works cohesively together
- Assign suitable roles and responsibilities that maximise individual skills, knowledge, personal characteristics and experience.

Please note, cancellations received within three working days of the course, or failure to cancel, will be subject to an administration charge of £50.
