Equality and Diversity

Educator Solutions

Building an inclusive environment and culture.

Create an approach within your school that meets legal and legislative requirements whilst adopting and embracing a broader equality and diverse culture.

Course Outline

This session outlines the responsibilities of schools to meet their equality and diversity obligation, both to their staff and pupils. The relevant legislation is covered in depth, along with the critical importance of avoiding discrimination and unconscious bias.

Emphasis will be give on how to create and maintain a broader equality and diversity culture within the school that delivers significant benefits.

By the end of this session delegates will be able to:

- Understand the requirements of the Equality Act 2010, as they relate to schools
- Understand the protected characteristics as outlined in the Act
- Review and refresh their school's Equality Objectives
- Appreciate the consequences of displaying prejudice, discrimination and unconscious bias within the school environment
- Realise the benefits for the school in adopting and embracing an equality and diversity culture
- Commence an action plan to review their school's approach towards equality and diversity.
