

I am delighted to invite you to attend the UEA University of Sanctuary one year celebratory social event on 23 January 2019 from 4pm in the Julian Study Centre, UEA, Chancellors Drive, Norwich, NR4 7TJ. We will be celebrating and highlighting the work that has been undertaken by UEA staff and students to develop a sustainable culture of welcome for asylum seekers and refugees in the university, and in British society as a whole.

The event will include a drinks reception and a display of staff and student work relating to issues of sanctuary, followed by presentations from Pro Vice-Chancellor Neil Ward, local sanctuary seekers and Stephen Wordsworth, Executive Director of the Council for At Risk Academics.

To conclude the celebratory event, LJ Hope Productions will be running an interactive theatrical live debate "Borders: Are Controls Necessary?" in the UEA Drama Studio from 6.30pm to 8.30pm.

Please find your invitation attached. It would be wonderful if you could confirm your attendance via email to university.of.sanctuary@uea.ac.uk.

If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

With kind regards

Madeleine Dutton

Sanctuary Liaison Officer
School of International Development
ARTS 1.69
University of East Anglia
Norwich Research Park
Norwich NR4 7TJ

Please note my working hours are Monday and Wednesday, 10am-1.40pm

One Year Anniversary Event | 23 January 2019

We are delighted to invite you to attend the University of Sanctuary one year anniversary celebratory evening event.

4pm-6pm

Celebratory Social Event

4pm-5pm Drinks reception and display of work by UEA staff and students relating to issues of sanctuary.

5pm-6pm Inspirational presentations about the past, present and future of UEA as a University of Sanctuary.

Speakers include Pro Vice-Chancellor Neil Ward, local sanctuary seekers and Stephen Wordsworth from the Council for At Risk Academics.

Location: Julian Study Centre Foyer and Lecture Theatre

6.30pm-8.30pm

6pm doors, 6.30pm start

Balloon Debate on "Borders: Are Controls Necessary?"

Interactive theatrical live debate session, produced by LJ Hope Productions, co-hosted by Simon Floyd Performance and the Norwich Arts Centre.

Location: UEA Drama Studio

One Year Anniversary Event

23 January 2019 | 10am-8.30pm

A day to share and highlight work that has been undertaken to develop a sustainable culture of welcome for asylum seekers and refugees at the UEA, and in society as a whole. Come and find out about the University of Sanctuary initiative and how you can get involved.

10am-4.30pm

British Red Cross Refugee Support Centre Donation

Do you have winter clothes you are able to donate? The UEA Student Union will be collecting the following items throughout the day: adult coats, jumpers, scarves, hats and gloves.

Drop-Off Point: UEA Student Union

2pm-4pm

Volunteering Fair and Information Sharing

Drop-in sessions to find out about volunteering opportunities at local NGOs and to receive financial advice about studying at UEA as a sanctuary seeker.

Location: Julian Study Centre Foyer

4pm-6pm

Celebratory Social Event

A celebratory event, featuring a display of work by UEA staff and students relating to issues of sanctuary. Inspirational presentations from Pro Vice-Chancellor Neil Ward, local sanctuary seekers and Stephen Wordsworth from the Council for At Risk Academics.

Location: Julian Study Centre Foyer and Lecture Theatre

6.30pm-8.30pm

6pm doors, 6.30pm start Balloon Debate on "Borders: Are Controls Necessary?"

Interactive theatrical live debate session, produced by LJ Hope Productions, co-hosted by Simon Floyd Performance and the Norwich Arts Centre.

Location: UEA Drama Studio

LJ Hope Productions, Simon Floyd and Norwich Arts Centre are pleased to present the flight of:

balloon

23 January 2019

UEA
Drama Studio

Doors
6.00pm
Starts
6.30pm

Free entry
Donations
welcome

Come and have your say!

The question

Six Players and a Pilot are floating above Norwich
in a punctured hot air balloon, which is sinking fast.

By sheer wit,
eloquence, and
mastery of the
chosen topic,
they must persuade the Mob (that's you)
why they should not be ejected to re-gain height and save the remaining Players.

Five rounds of debate,
challenge and voting will
determine the survivor.

Borders: Are Controls Necessary?

Interested in taking part?

Email: university.of.sanctuary@uea.ac.uk