Using social stories and comic strip conversations

Outline

Social stories and comic strip conversations are techniques, developed by Carol Gray, to support social children and young people with an Autistic Spectrum Disorder (ASD). Social stories and comic strip conversations aim to present information in a literal, 'concrete' way, which may improve a person's understanding of a previously difficult or ambiguous situation or activity.

Description

This course will give an understanding around

- social stories and ASD
- the structure of a social story
- comic strip conversations and ASD
- the structure of comic strip conversations and ASD
