

East of England and North East London CPD Event

Raising Inclusion, Reducing Exclusion

Working together to achieve the Norfolk SEND Strategy

Thursday 6 February 2020

9.30-15.00

(Signing in and refreshments from 9.00am)

John Innes Conference Centre, Colney, Norwich, NR4 7UH

To book your place please visit:

<https://nasen.org.uk/events/whole-school-send-reducing-exclusions-multi-agency-working-supporting-the-norfolk-send-strategy.html>

East of England and North East London Regional Leads invite school leaders, behaviour leads and SENCOs to this free CPD event for members of the Community of Practice. This free training is open only to members of the Whole School SEND Community of Practice. The Community of Practice is free to join at:

<https://www.sendgateway.org.uk/whole-school-send/join-our-community-of-practice.html>

Guest speakers include:

Anne Heavey—National Director of Whole School SEND, Gov SEN Review Independent Advisor

John D’Abbro OBE – SEMH Advisor, SEMH provision Executive Head, EEF report (Improving Behaviour in Schools Guidance Report 2019).

Workshops from PATHS lead coach, school leaders and the Youth Offending Team

Wide range of exhibitors with a focus on social, emotional and mental health

Lunch and refreshments will be provided

If you have any booking issues or queries please contact: natalier@nasen.org.uk

Norfolk County Council

