If you are in contact with parents/carers as part of your role and want to be able to:

- ♦ Understand the impact of parental conflict on children and young people
- ♦ Recognise parental conflict
- ♦ Support parents/carers to understand triggers to conflict and the impact on their children
- ♦ Have access to practical resources and tools to use when working with parents in conflict

Then this is appropriate training for you.

To book your place, send a booking form to training@momentumnorfolk.org.uk

Allocations for each course will be spread as evenly as possible among organisations.

Successful applicants will be advised of their space at least two weeks prior to the course date. Full joining instructions and venue details will be sent at least one week prior to the course date.

Unsuccessful applicants will be placed onto a waiting list, with priority for a future course or a space on their chosen course if one becomes available. They will be informed as soon as practicable.

* A £20.00 cancellation fee will be charged for cancellations received after joining instructions have been sent.

There is a large body of evidence that shows that conflict between parents can have a negative impact on children's long-term mental health and future life chances. When conflict between parents is frequent, intense and poorly resolved, it puts children's mental health and long-term outcomes at risk.
