

Overview

Do you want to drive change in the new normal after lockdown?

Description

This training is for Designated Teachers, Social Care and Foster Carers. There will be three short sessions hosted by the Virtual School on Zoom. The Zoom link will be emailed to you on the last working day before the training date.

Each session will comprise of a thirty minute presentation led by Jaz Ampaw-Farr. After each session you will have the opportunity to ask questions of Jaz Ampaw-Farr to ensure we have the greatest positive impact on our children.

Session One will explore strategies to support young people to remain positive throughout the current period of uncertainty.

Session Two will explore how staff and children need to prepare for the “new normal” whilst celebrating current successes.

Session Three will boost resilience and show you how to empower young people to transition into a new adventure.

If you would like to view all three sessions but are unable to attend all sessions we can provide you with a recording of those you miss.

Outcomes

- Promoting strategies to help us respond positively.
- Empowering individuals to become more resilient and confident in a time of international change.
- Enabling clear actions to prepare for the new normal in September.
- Becoming a “positive disruptor” to ensure children in our care feel positive to take the next step.

Cost

This training is offered at no cost to all delegates.
