

National Professional Qualifications (NPQs)

You can complete an NPQ in:

- Leading Behaviour and Culture
- Leading Teaching
- Leading Teacher Development
- Senior Leadership
- Headship
- Executive Leadership

For all schools in South Norfolk, Breckland and Great Yarmouth, Inspiration Teaching School Hub, in partnership with Ambition Institute, will be offering all six NPQs from September, whether you want to specialise in an area of teaching or focus on a level of leadership.

	Specialist	Leadership
Length of programme	12 months	18 months
Number of hours	57	77
Cost (pp)	£900	NPQSL: £1,147 NPQH: £1,982 NPQEL: £4,099

Full scholarships may be available from the Department for Education, eligible programmes and eligibility criteria to be confirmed.

Structure of the NPQs:

- Delivered by expert leads who each have a range of experience as leaders
- One (specialist NPQs) or two (leadership NPQs) conferences
- Weekly study modules via Steplab online learning, sometimes with a peer
- A half-termly clinic with a Visiting Fellow
- A half-termly community session for networking and discussion
- An assessment clinic in the final half-term
- Assessment: a 1500 word response to a case study, completed across an 8 day window. This will take place within 12 weeks of the end of the course

The benefits to your school:

- High-quality professional development can help boost attainment within your school
- NPQs focus squarely on what educators need to know and be able to do
- Increased flexibility, self-study to fit around your timetable
