

Primary Phonics Briefing Spring Term 2022

Join April Newman, Oxford University Press Primary Educational Consultant and colleagues for a FREE virtual information session on our three validated Phonics SSPs and Phonic Readers

WHEN:

Wednesday 9th February 4-5pm (incl. Q&A at end)

BOOK YOUR FREE PLACE HERE: REGISTRATION FORM

CONTENT:

- Overview of the range of validated Phonics programmes on offer from Oxford University Press, the approach, resources and training options
  - Essential Letters & Sounds – OUP’s newest Phonics programme developed by Knowledge Schools Trust English Hub. Perfect for schools who have been following Letters & Sounds 2007 and want a simple, cost effective option that could utilize their existing phonic readers
  - Read Write Inc Phonics – a whole-school approach to phonics that provides comprehension, handwriting, spelling and composition to get your children reading, writing and speaking fluently. Fully supported by extensive, high quality training
  - Floppy’s Phonics Teaching Programme - systematic and structured with built-in consolidation and revision to ensure every child succeeds. Features the much-loved characters of Biff, Chip and Kipper to engage children from the outset. A range of professional development options are available to support the successful implementation.

- Q&A Session

SUITABLE FOR:

Head Teachers, Literacy Specialists, Literacy Leads and Reading Leaders

Attendees will get a short overview of each programme, the digital elements and decodable reading books that support each programme as well as approximate costings.

This is not a training session and there is no charge to attend