Working in Partnership with Parents for Primary Schools

This one-day workshop is intended to give headteachers, senior managers and SENCOs an opportunity to identify strengths, reflect on current practice and develop strategies for working in partnership with parents. The day will involve participants in discussions about the SEN Code of Practice and the Disability Discrimination Act (DDA) in relation to working with parents.

The course objectives are to:

- identify key issues in the Code of Practice and DDA which relate to working with parents.
- further develop effective communication skills when working with parents
- identify sources of information and support
- identify key areas for further development.

The course will be facilitated by Norfolk Parent Partnership including voluntary organisations and Independent Parent Supporters.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided.

Cost: £115.00
