

14-16 VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Sharing of Good Practice from the Eastern Region Increased Flexibility Partnerships

In association with LSDA and Norfolk Learning & Skills Council, Easton College and City College, Norwich, are hosting a Conference on 12 May 2005, 10am - 3.30pm, at Easton Sports and Conference Centre, Easton College, Easton, Norwich. NR9 5DX.

This free Conference is aimed at practitioners who are working in schools and colleges in vocational learning for 14-16 year olds.

Prof David Eastwood is to be the Keynote Speaker and his address will be “After Tomlinson: The Future for 14-19 Qualifications”. David Eastwood became Vice-Chancellor of the University of East Anglia in September 2002. He has served on numerous national bodies and committees, including the Tomlinson Group on 14-19 Education 2003-04.

Representatives from around the Region will be sharing good practice from their experiences of IF Projects and include -

The Vocational Learning Support Programme

Employer/School/College Collaboration

Learning styles and effective teaching strategies for 14-16 year olds

Learning & Skills Council Perspective

The IF project from a learner perspective

Student satisfaction – evaluating the experience

There will be Lunchtime Exhibitions, which will provide opportunities for delegates to observe examples of good practice from Regional Partnerships. If you are interested in having a table at the Conference, please let me know.
