Story Sack Workshop - Neil Griffiths - REMINDER LAST CHANCE TO BOOK

The aims of the workshop are
 To focus upon how reading begins and how early number skills start to develop.
 To emphasise the vital role of parents and other adults as learning partners for young children.
 To highlight the importance of fostering an enjoyment of books and a confident approach to learning.
 To examine the contents of several Storysacks and demonstrate how they are used.
 To explore the contribution that Storysacks can make to developing children's literacy and numeracy at home and in the classroom.
 To provide information about the practical aspects of making Storysacks and organising volunteer helpers.
 To outline essential training and support issues for parents.

REMINDER: Neil Griffiths, Director of the Basic Skills Storysack Project, delivering two workshops in Norfolk. PRESENTATION AND PRACTICAL SESSION. Storysacks are an enjoyable way to share books and to bring them to life.
